the city. The compact city centre is easily walkable, making it perfect for a leisurely day of exploration. Don't forget to indulge in a traditional afternoon tea – Bath does it exceptionally well!

Oxford: The City of Dreaming Spires

Another classic day trip, Oxford is easily accessible from London Paddington or Marylebone station, with journeys typically taking around an hour. Famous for its prestigious university, Oxford boasts an awe-inspiring collection of historic colleges, each with its own unique character and stunning architecture. Walking through these ancient quadrangles feels like stepping onto a film set.

Must-see colleges include Christ Church, known for its magnificent Great Hall (which inspired Hogwarts in the Harry Potter films), and Magdalen College, with its beautiful grounds and deer park.
