It would be remiss not to mention the incredible role of music in VeggieTales. Their songs are not just filler; they are often the very vehicles that carry the most potent theological messages. While there might not be a single song titled "God Loves Me," many of their popular tunes echo this sentiment:

1. "The Pirates Who Don't Do Anything": Even in its humorous portrayal of laziness, there's an underlying message of acceptance. While they don't "do anything," the characters are still valued members of their community, hinting at a love that sees beyond our actions.
2. "I Love My Lips": This quirky song, while seemingly about vanity, showcases Larry's simple joy and self-acceptance, which can be interpreted as a reflection of a Creator who loves us with all our unique quirks.
3. Songs about Forgiveness: Episodes dealing with forgiveness, like "King George and the Ducky," inherently speak to God's boundless mercy and love. When characters learn to forgive, they are mirroring the way God forgives them.
