For centuries, Christians have pondered its meaning, its timing, and its manifestation. However, when we explore this idea through the lens of spiritual masters like Paramahansa Yogananda, founder of Self-Realization Fellowship, a fascinating and expanded understanding emerges, one that transcends literal interpretation and embraces a deeper, inner reality. Yogananda, himself a devout Christian and a realized yogi, offered unique insights into the Christ consciousness and its potential reappearance not just as an external event, but as an inner awakening within humanity. This exploration will delve into Yogananda's teachings on the "second coming of Christ," examining how he interpreted this prophecy, the role of Jesus Christ in his spiritual philosophy, and what it means for individuals seeking spiritual enlightenment today. We'll uncover how his message resonates with the idea of a spiritual renaissance, an inner transformation that echoes the transformative power attributed to Christ's return.

Who Was Paramahansa Yogananda?

Before diving into his specific interpretations, it's essential to understand who Paramahansa Yogananda was. Born Mukunda Lal Ghosh in 1893 in Gorakhpur, India, Yogananda was a disciple of the revered Swami Sri Yukteswar Giri. He was a spiritual teacher who brought the ancient science of Kriya Yoga meditation to the West in 1920. His seminal book, "Autobiography of a Yogi," has become a spiritual classic, introducing millions worldwide to the wisdom of yogic philosophy and its profound connection to various religious traditions. Yogananda emphasized the underlying unity of all religions, seeing them as different paths leading to the same ultimate truth. His teachings integrated the yogic path of self-realization with the devotional fervor and ethical principles found in Christianity, Hinduism, and other faiths. He saw Jesus Christ not just as a historical figure, but as an avatar, a divine incarnation who embodied the highest Christ Consciousness.

Yogananda's Interpretation of the ## "Second Coming"

For Yogananda, the "second coming of Christ" wasn't about a physical, singular event where Jesus would descend from the heavens in a dramatic, literal fashion. Instead, he spoke of a **Christ Consciousness** - a state of divine realization, oneness with God, and perfect understanding that Jesus so uniquely embodied. The "second coming," in his view, was an invitation to humanity to collectively awaken to this Christ Consciousness within themselves. He often explained that Jesus, through his profound spiritual realization, had attained a high vibratory state, a union with the Cosmic Consciousness. His message of love, compassion, and divine guidance was a blueprint for others to follow. Yogananda believed that when enough individuals on Earth attained this Christ Consciousness, it would create a palpable spiritual shift, a "second coming" not of the individual Jesus, but of the divine principle that he represented, manifesting universally.

The Christ Consciousness: An Inner Awakening

Yogananda's interpretation shifts the focus from an external event to an internal transformation. The Christ Consciousness, as he described it, is not something to be passively waited for, but actively cultivated through spiritual practices. This consciousness is characterized by: **Unconditional Love:** The ability to see the divine in all beings and to act with boundless compassion. *

**Universal Brotherhood:** Recognizing the interconnectedness of all humanity and transcending all divisions of race, creed, or nationality. *

**Divine Wisdom:** Attaining a deep intuitive understanding of life's truths and God's will. *

**Spiritual Freedom:** Experiencing liberation from the limitations of the ego and the material world. Yogananda taught that through practices like meditation, prayer, and conscious living, individuals could gradually raise their consciousness to this divine level. The "second coming" would thus be a collective spiritual awakening, where the teachings and consciousness of Christ would be reborn within the hearts of countless individuals. This spiritual renaissance would usher in an era of peace, understanding, and divine realization for the planet.

Jesus Christ as an Avatar in Yogananda's Philosophy

Yogananda held Jesus Christ in the highest esteem. He considered Jesus to be an **avatar**, a divine incarnation, much like Buddha or Krishna. This doesn't diminish Jesus' uniqueness, but rather places him within a universal understanding of divine beings who manifest on Earth to guide humanity. For Yogananda, Jesus was a perfect example of the highest potential of human consciousness, a being who had fully realized his divine nature. His teachings, particularly the Sermon on the Mount, were seen as profound spiritual instructions for achieving this realization. Yogananda often referred to Jesus' statement, "I and my Father are one," as a testament to the ultimate oneness that every soul can achieve.

The Unity of Religions and the Christ Message

A core tenet of Yogananda's teachings was the inherent unity of all religions. He saw the Christ message as a universal truth that, while expressed through a particular historical figure and cultural context, held profound relevance for all people, regardless of their religious background. He often drew parallels between Jesus' teachings and the wisdom found in the Bhagavad Gita and other Eastern scriptures, highlighting the common threads of divine love, truth, and self-realization. In this context, the "second coming of Christ" could also be interpreted as the universal acceptance and embodiment of Christ's core message of love and spiritual unity by people of all faiths and backgrounds. It's about recognizing the divine spark within oneself and extending it outwards to all of creation.

The Role of Kriya Yoga in the "Second Coming"

Paramahansa Yogananda brought Kriya Yoga to the West

as a practical, scientific method for achieving spiritual realization. Kriya Yoga, a technique of controlled breathing and meditation, is designed to accelerate spiritual evolution by purifying the body and mind and opening the inner spiritual centers. Yogananda believed that by diligently practicing Kriya Yoga, individuals could systematically attain higher states of consciousness, including the Christ Consciousness. The accelerated evolution offered by Kriya Yoga could, in his view, contribute to the widespread spiritual awakening that he envisioned as the "second coming." It provided a tangible path for individuals to actively participate in ushering in this new era of divine awareness.

Practical Steps for Inner Christ Consciousness

Yogananda didn't just talk about abstract concepts; he offered practical guidance for individuals to cultivate their own inner Christ Consciousness. These practices included:

- * Meditation: Regular, deep meditation to quiet the mind and commune with the divine presence within.
- * Prayer: Sincere, heartfelt prayer as a means of connecting with God and seeking divine guidance.
- * Righteous Living: Adhering to ethical principles, practicing self-control, and cultivating virtues like love, compassion, and forgiveness.
- * Spiritual Discrimination (Viveka): The ability to discern between the eternal and the ephemeral, the real and the unreal, the divine and the material.
- * Selfless Service (Karma Yoga): Performing

actions with an attitude of offering, without attachment to the fruits of one's labor. By engaging in these practices, individuals could gradually dissolve the egoic barriers that obscure their divine nature and allow the Christ Consciousness to shine forth.

The Significance of Yogananda's Message for Today

In a world often characterized by division, conflict, and spiritual searching, Paramahansa Yogananda's message about the "second coming of Christ" offers a powerful and hopeful perspective. It shifts the focus from a passive waiting for an external event to an active participation in a global spiritual transformation. His teachings remind us that: * **The divine is within us:** The Christ Consciousness is not a distant ideal but an inherent potential waiting to be awakened. * **Unity is the ultimate truth:** The spiritual message of Christ, and indeed all true spiritual paths, points towards the oneness of all existence. * **Transformation is possible:** Through dedicated spiritual practice, individuals can achieve profound inner change and contribute to a more peaceful and enlightened world. Yogananda's understanding of the "second coming" is not about predicting doom or a singular judgmental event. Rather, it's a call to a cosmic awakening, a time when the principles of divine love and wisdom, exemplified by Christ, will be understood and lived by a significant portion of humanity. This spiritual renaissance, he taught, would lead to a new earth, a more evolved collective consciousness.

Conclusion: A Living Reality of Christ Consciousness

Paramahansa Yogananda's interpretation of the "second coming of Christ" offers a profoundly inspiring and practical approach to spiritual growth. It invites us to see this prophecy not as a distant eschatological event, but as a living reality that we can actively participate in creating. By cultivating Christ Consciousness within ourselves through meditation, prayer, and righteous living, we can contribute to a global spiritual awakening. The "second coming" is, in essence, an invitation for the Christ Consciousness – the embodiment of divine love, wisdom, and oneness – to be reborn not just in one individual, but in the hearts of all humanity. It is a testament to the enduring power of Jesus Christ's message and a hopeful vision for the future of humanity, a future where divine realization becomes the norm, not the exception. The legacy of Yogananda continues to guide seekers on this path, reminding us that the greatest spiritual transformations begin within. The Christ consciousness is not just a concept; it's a state of being that can be realized by anyone who sincerely seeks it.

Yet, within the unique spiritual framework laid by Paramahansa Yogananda, this notion takes on a deeply personal and transformative dimension. Rather than a literal, physical return, Yogananda's vision of the Second Coming invites seekers into an inner awakening—a spiritual rebirth that mirrors the return of Christ but unfolds within the heart and consciousness of humanity. Yogananda, a revered Indian yogi and founder of the Self-Realization Fellowship, emphasized that true divine return is not confined to time or space. His seminal work, Autobiography of a Yogi, reveals how the essence of Christ—divine love, selfless service, and transcendental wisdom—manifests repeatedly through enlightened masters like himself. This recurring presence signifies a deeper truth: the Second Coming is not a future event alone, but a continuous process of spiritual awakening accessible to every seeker. | 1 | What did Paramahansa Yogananda teach about the 'Second Coming'?                                   | Paramahansa Yogananda taught that the 'Second Coming' is not a literal, physical event of one individual returning. Instead, he explained it as the spiritual awakening and Christ-consciousness (Krishna-consciousness) dawning within the hearts of all individuals, leading to a new era of spiritual understanding and unity. |
| 2 | How does Yogananda's interpretation of the Second Coming differ from traditional religious views? | Traditional views often see the Second Coming as a future event involving Jesus' physical return to Earth. Yogananda's interpretation is more internal and universal, focusing on the Christ consciousness manifesting within each person, a gradual spiritual upliftment of humanity rather than a singular, historical event.   |
| 3 | Did Yogananda claim to be the Second Coming?                                                      | No, Paramahansa Yogananda never claimed to be the Second Coming of Christ. He consistently taught that the 'Second Coming' refers to the inner realization of divine consciousness by individuals, a process he helped facilitate through his teachings and Kriya Yoga.                                                           |

| 4 | What is the role of Kriya Yoga in Yogananda's concept of the Second Coming? | Yogananda taught that Kriya Yoga is a powerful scientific technique that helps to accelerate spiritual evolution. By purifying the mind and body and stimulating the chakras, Kriya Yoga prepares the individual to awaken their own inner Christ-consciousness, which is central to his understanding of the Second Coming. |
| 5 | When did Yogananda predict this 'Second Coming' would occur?                | Yogananda didn't give a specific date for a cataclysmic event. He spoke of a gradual dawning of a 'New World,' a period of spiritual enlightenment and global unity, which he believed would unfold over many years as humanity increasingly embraces higher consciousness and spiritual principles.                         |
