Elisabetta Dami is a seasoned children's author with a passion for storytelling and a remarkable ability to connect with young audiences. Born in Milan, Italy, her journey into the world of children's literature began at a relatively young age. She started working in the publishing industry in the 1970s, initially as an editor. It was her innate talent for crafting engaging narratives that soon led her to writing. Her early works, though not under the Geronimo Stilton name, demonstrated a knack for creating relatable characters and exciting plots.

From Editor to Author: The Genesis of Geronimo Stilton

The genesis of Geronimo Stilton is a testament to Dami's innovative thinking. Recognizing a gap in the market for
